New Country Homes In Demand

Comforts of City Spread to Suburbs and Rural Districts—Carbide Gas in Greater Use.

CITY dwellers moving toward the country and farmers seeking more comfortable living conditions are dotting the countryside with new or rebuilt houses, compact, tastefully designed and complete with modern conveniences.

The Dutch colonial house pictured here illustrates one type of inexpensive country home, suitable either for the suburbanite or the honest-to-goodness farmer. It is scientific in arrangement, charming in appearance and has been designed to offer the accommodations required by the conditions of country life.

Special Features

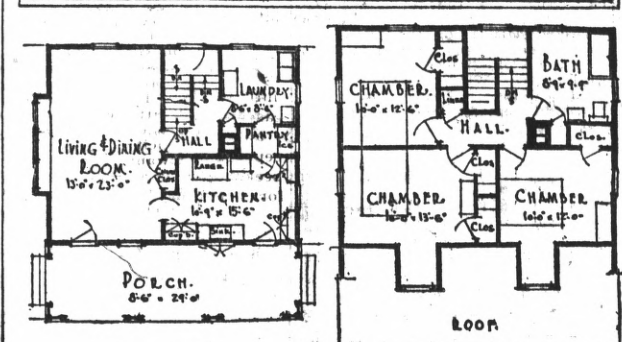

On the second floor there are three good-sized bedrooms, five closets and a bathroom large enough to hold a single bed in an emergency. On the first floor the combination living and dining room occupies one side of the house. It has a built-in china cabinet with glass doors and drawers for table linen and silver below. The built-out window is a sunny place for geraniums and potted plants in winter.

The kitchen is large and well planned, has windows on two sides and adequate wall space for sink, work table, range and gas hot plate. Both pantry and kitchen are conveniently located, and the latter is quite large and has facilities to enable its use as a washroom. The cellar runs the full length of the building and will house the furnace and provide extra space for storage.

Lighting in the Country

Modern lighting is often neglected by the rural population, although it is a first consideration with people accustomed to city life. Carbide gas, which has become increasingly popular in rural homes, is suggested for the present house, since it can be used for convenience cooking and ironing, as well as lighting, and it makes the household independent of outside supply. The light is soft and white. The plant is buried underground a short distance from the house, and the gas, which generates automatically, is conveyed by ordinary city gas piping to the various rooms and outbuildings.

This house has been modestly designed and was planned to be built of frame construction with wood siding exterior. It should be

LOVE STORY IN FEATURE FILM AT RICHMOND

At the Richmond theatre there is a charming love story packed with drama and bubbling over with comedy. Doris Kenyon and Lloyd Hughes are featured.

Directed by Alfred E. Green and made under the production management of L. P. Finemann the film sustains a high degree of entertainment value and abounds in comedy touches that make spectators gasp. Comedy contrasts with touches of pathos, thrills with tense drama, suspense with surprise "kicks."

A supporting cast of real artists creates some strongly marked characterizations that will be remembered. Philo McCollough, Ralph Pasadena, Virginia Lee Corbin, Hallam Cooley, John Patrick and Ethel Wales contribute some of the outstanding work of their respective careers.

The plot abounds with surprises, so little of it should be told. Suffice to say that the heroine, with inheritance by the heroine of six million dollars, subject to a very tricky proviso. To get the money, she must resort to a daring method, and through it cleverly outwit two watchful spinster aunts.

The picture is entertainment of the all-around and a yard wide variety. You ought to see it.

Other film features include "Dog Shy," a Charley Chase comedy; and "Flaming Ice," a screen novelty.

The state department withheld comment on the appointments of Sterling and Bliss for a later announcement, but pointed out that Phillips will occupy one of the most important diplomatic posts in the service.

Importance Of Physical Culture Told Rotarians

"All men students at the University of California are taught that the physical culture courses which are obligatory will fit them for life and give them poise and balance which could never be obtained through the old courses of arm waving and deep breathing exercises." Professor Frank Kleeberger told the Rotary club yesterday.

Kleeberger is head of the physical culture department at the University, and is a close observer of the development that the required courses in swimming, wrestling and agility have brought about in the students under his jurisdiction.

Four of Kleeberger's students gave the Rotarians an exhibition of the kind of work now being taught in the university. Arthur Hodge, wrestler, demonstrated the various forms of wrestling and holds, with Glenn Berry, captain of the university gymnasium and wrestling teams.

Dwight Griffin, Pacific Coast amateur middle weight champion, put on a lively two round bout with Frank Riddell, university boxer. Griffin defeated the middle weight champion of the Olympic and Hollywood teams a short time ago in the same evening.

Clark Kratzer has been elected as representative of the Rotary club at the coming Rotary International in Belgium. The birthday celebration of the San Leandro club next Monday night will be attended by a number of members of the club.

Ira Vaughn presided as chairman of the day.

MILTON SILLS IN STAR ROLE AT CALIFORNIA

"Paradise," a First National picture, screened from an adaptation of Cosmo Hamilton's novel of the same name, is today's attraction at the California Theatre, where it opened yesterday.

Milton Sills is seen in the stellar role with Betty Bronson as his leading lady, and a brilliant supporting cast.

London and the South Seas are the locales. Sills appears to great advantage, and Betty Bronson adds much to the picture as a former stage dancer.

Kate Price and Charlie Murray keep you in a gale of laughter every time they flash on the screen. Noah Beery is rough and tough in the role of a scheming low-down white who tries to kill Sills and steal Betty Bronson.

"Paradise" is fine entertainment. It pleased the audience at the opening and should please others today. Producer Ray Rockett, one of the Rockett brothers who filmed "Abraham Lincoln," deserves much credit for his latest picture.

Other features on the same program include the second chapter of "The Collegians," entitled "Fighting To Win," and featuring George Lewis; "Lickety Split," a Mermaid comedy; and Larry Canelo, at the organ.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 4.—All appearances to the contrary notwithstanding, it's old fashioned girl who appeals to the college student as a wife—in a straw vote, at least.

This was disclosed today at the University of Southern California when ballots cast by 1500 undergraduates were counted. The question was: "What type of girl would you select as a wife?"

Forty percent of the students voted in favor of the "old style" lass, while 26 percent leaned toward the "flapper." The business and "clinging vine" types ran neck and neck, with 17 percent scored for each class.

Alabama Schools
May Be Closed For Lack Of Funds

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 4.—More than 3,000 public schools in Alabama where 150,000 white children are in attendance may have to be closed within 30 days because of lack of funds.

A ruling by Attorney General Charles McCall holding invalid a $600,000 emergency bond issue is now before the Alabama Supreme court and as the state official is sustained there will be no funds to continue these schools in operation.

Arrangements of Chamber of Commerce Week Will be Made At Session on Monday Night

Final details of Chamber of Commerce Week, beginning Monday, February 14 and closing Saturday, February 19, will be worked out at the second meeting of the 1927 membership committee at the Hotel Carquinez Monday evening.

Richmond merchants have been asked to cooperate in providing window space and giving other assistance to the chamber in making Chamber of Commerce week one of the most successful in the history of the organization, according to George Thornton, chairman of the membership committee.

Under the slogan "Your city cannot travel faster than your Chamber of Commerce," the membership committee, assisted by every member of the chamber who will volunteer for service, will endeavor to build up the roster to a size commensurate with the needs of the community.

With a program of 1927 activities that will command every dollar that the chamber can supply in order to tell the story of Richmond to the outside world, the membership committee realizes it has been given an important task to perform and will go into action Monday, February 14, determined to put every ounce of ability and energy into the canvass for new members.

"A community is known largely by the support given its chamber of commerce," said Thornton yesterday. "It is the history of progressive American communities that the cities giving the greatest support to their chambers of commerce are the cities that are developing faster."

"The membership committee enters Chamber of Commerce week with the knowledge that it is selling a live, going organization, in a healthy financial condition and with an enthusiastic membership which realizes that Richmond is entering a new era of prosperity. That prosperity will be ours just as long as we give proper support to the chamber of commerce."

President P. M. Sanford, ex-officio member of the committee, is giving active assistance to Thornton and his committee.

Other live-wire members of the membership committee include A. L. Paulsen, J. C. Hitchcock, E. H. Higgins, president of the Richmond Builders' Exchange; T. G. Gray, F. A. Mero, E. P. Vaughan, Roy Eakle, Henry Sotio, E. B. Bull, first vice president of the chamber; W. Chapin, Joseph Reed and others.

A list of members who for one reason or another dropped out during 1926 will be supplied the membership committee and these Richmond citizens will be invited to again put their shoulders to the wheel of progress by joining the chamber of commerce. Then, too, there will be a complete list of men and women in the committee—progressive citizens all—who should be members and who will be solicited.

"Unlike other organizations the sole income of the chamber of commerce comes from membership dues. With Richmond well on its way to substantial growth larger funds are needed to carry on the work of the chamber, according to President Sanford."

Schneider Showing New Spring Woolens

Al Schneider, popular Richmond tailor in the Carquinez Hotel building, announces that he has a greater variety of new spring woolens this year than ever before.

"They are coming in daily and I extend an invitation to every one of my friends to come into my place and see for themselves," Schneider declared yesterday.

Varied Fashions In Dance Frocks and Evening Gowns This Season Permit One Individuality of Style

The varied styles in evening gowns this season enable one to cater to various moods in dressing for the evening. One can follow the quaint charm of the picturesque period gown, the girlish simplicity of the delicate chiffon frock or the fascinating chic of the ultra-sophisticated beaded gown. So that a complete wardrobe contains not only mere frocks and gowns but costumes with which to accentuate certain moods and make one a different and distinct personality with the donning of each and every different gown.

Lauren with the delightful period gown has sponsored one of the most successful fashions for evening wear this season. No smart function this winter has been without its intriguing period gowns, plentifully in evidence. The straight-line mode however maintained a foothold in the fashionable world by appearing either in scintillating brilliance of beads and sequins or of delicate chiffons.

The interesting gowns here illustrated depict various types of evening gowns popular this season. At the left is a decidedly individual gown of black taffeta worn by Gwen Lee which has the tight bodice and modified bouffant skirt of the sophisticated period gown. It has an unusual silver ribbon trimming on the skirt accentuating the short in front and long in back movement and is finished with a deep border of black tulle at the bottom. The deep V neck is edged with silver ribbon.

The dainty shell pink chiffon evening gown worn by Joan Crawford achieves individuality both in the novel cape back and the odd sash of turquoise blue velvet ribbon smartly placed in front. The skirt has the uneven hemline so fashionable this season.

One of the most charming of the evening modes is the type of frock worn by Pauline Starke. A yoke of white net on the black satin bodice is simple and charming and the wide bouffant tiered skirt of black net is bordered with white. A huge white rose is worn with it.

Committee Asks Probe of Sale Of Presidential Commissions In Southern Part of Nation

(By Universal Service)
By JAMES T. WILLIAMS, Jr.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Two members of the Republican national committee may be sent to jail unless their allies in that powerful organization can drum up enough votes in the senate to defeat the resolution just reported from the committee on the judiciary by the chairman, Senator Norris of Nebraska, to probe the traffic in presidential commissions, which the evidence seems to show is a "highly protected industry," in the south today.

The Norris resolution numbers among its supporters Senator Borah of Idaho, Senator Reed of Missouri, Senator Walsh of Montana, Senator Overman of North Carolina and Senator Ashurst of Arizona.

South Opposes Bill
Opposing this group of independent Republicans and indignant Democrats are Senator Ernst of Kentucky, the member from that state of the Republican national committee, and Senator Gillett of Massachusetts, whose former colleague, ex-Senator Butler, retains the chairmanship of the national committee of his party in spite of his defeat for election last November by Senator Walsh of Massachusetts.

Steam Roller Feared
It is not doubted by some of the supporters of the Norris resolution that the Republican national committee will be tempted to resort to its notorious "steam roller" methods to flatten out support in the senate for a real investigation of the charges on which the Norris resolution is based.

For their part supporters of the Norris resolution will do their best to convince the senate and the country that they are in earnest in their resolve to right a grave wrong. As a member of the senate said today: "Here is a flagrant scandal that is not only a disgrace to the government but a humiliation to the nation."

Investigation Looms

If the senate can muster the courage to defy the Republican national committee, a subcommittee will be ordered to make the most thorough investigation of which the senate is capable of all charges involving the sale of presidential commissions either for cash or campaign contributions.

To protect witnesses summoned by the committee on the judiciary to testify, the executive will probably be asked to give public assurance that no office holder will be allowed to suffer at the hands

State Delegation Not Divided On Boulder Dam Bill

(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Reports that the California delegation in congress is divided on the Boulder Dam project on the Colorado River, were emphatically denied in a statement issued by the group today.

Attempts by enemies of the flood control-irrigation-power development to drive a wedge through the California delegation met with denouncement. Speaking for the California members of the house, Rep. Curry said:

"The California delegation at a meeting held this morning, unanimously repledged their support of the bill and considered steps to be taken to bring the legislation promptly before the house for its consideration and action."

House Sold To Clear Way For Another School

Submitting a bid of $2,000 Bura Brothers Inc., local realtors purchased a house on Fortieth street and Roosevelt avenue sold by the Richmond school department yesterday to make room for the construction of a new elementary school.

Considerable interest was displayed among the residents of the city in the auction. Numerous offers were made before the structure was finally sold.

The elementary board will consider plans on February 15, for the proposed new school building. The addition to the department has been planned for some time, but it was not until last Sunday that an announcement in the RECORD-HERALD revealed that the school would be built.

It is deemed necessary to build a school in that district to take care of the large increase in attendance from East Richmond and the Mira Vista section.

The Fortieth and Roosevelt school will be the fourteenth educational building and the eleventh elementary school in the Richmond school department.

Army Promotion Plan Offered

(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Promotion of army officers would be accelerated by a bill amending the promotion and retirement rules of the army, reported today by the Senate Military Affairs committee.

Voluntary retirement of officers after ten years service, upon approval of an examining board, is provided under the plan. Unless the plan is adopted, it was said that thousands of officers who entered the army in the World War will reach the retirement age of 64 without rising above the grade of major.

INSULAR DEPT. IS FAVORED BY THE PRESIDENT

(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Establishment of a new government department in which would be lodged control of all the insular possessions, in addition to Alaska, is favored by President Coolidge, it was announced at the White House today.

The new bureau would have jurisdiction over the Philippines, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Virgin Islands, now administered by the army or navy.

Military Rule Unpopular
President Coolidge is said to feel that it might be well to get away from a policy that smacks of military rule of the insular possessions.

The war and navy departments administration of them is partly accidental, he believes. They took charge, he feels, because they happened to be on the scene when the outlying territories came into Uncle Sam's possession.

President Coolidge feels that the army and navy have administered these possessions with honesty and skill, but the people who live there get the idea that they are controlled by the military, and the President feels that impression should be relieved by establishing civil control under a new joint bureau. He does not expect that this change will be made by this session of congress or at any time without prolonged discussion.

Check Payments Show Decrease

(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—For the fourth successive week the volume of business as measured by check payments declined during the final week of January, 1927 as compared with a year ago. The commerce department announced today. Totals for each of the first four weeks of 1926 were higher than the current figures.

Wholesale prices continued to decline. Prices of bonds and stocks on the New York stock exchange, however, are generally higher than at the same period last year.

LIONS REPORT CASUALTIES AS CONTEST NEARS

The Lions will play a game of basketball of doubtful outcome with the Kiwanis club Monday night at the Roosevelt Junior high school gymnasium. Jack Smith, manager for the Lions cage team, reports that in spite of casualties in his team the battle will be fought to a bitter and acrimonious end. Practice is progressing with due consideration for the invalids who have appeared in the lineup since the contest was first announced.

The Lions quintet is mustered from such luminaries as Louie Burke, Bob Smith, Johnny Miller, Eddie Burg, Clint Smith, Al Purrier, and Doc Hall Vestal. The Kiwanians are planning a forceful onslaught with stars including Frank Schellenberger, Carol Wasley, Doc Seawright, Doc R. R. Root, Homer Patterson, George Lee, Clare Horner, and Hall Sanders.

The event will start promptly at 8 o'clock Monday night. A girls' basketball game will follow the main event, and band music is promised for the occasion.

MAKE-UP WAR IS STARTED BY BLANCHE BATES

(By Universal Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4.—Blanche Bates, noted actress and wife of George Creel, the writer, assumed a new role today—that of a mother protesting against the use of cosmetics by high school girls.

A letter protesting against teachers at the girl's high school where her daughter, Frances Virginia, is a student, permitting pupils to "dual" their faces, was sent by Mrs. Creel to the board of education.

Mrs. Creel's protest followed an appeal from Frances for permission to carry a compact containing powder, lipstick and rouge. Recently, Frances's allowance was withheld for two weeks because of her use of makeup.

Teachers at girl's high school declare that they frequently were compelled to tell girls from the classroom to wash their faces because of their liberal use of powder, rouge and lip stick.

However, the teachers believe that the problem is one which can be solved only within the home. Parents, the teachers assert, should prohibit their daughters from using makeup.

Teachers admitted that sometimes they failed to recognize their pupils after leaving school because of their generous use of cosmetics.

The authorities claim they seized documents which conclusively implicated the accused men.

VARSITY IS DOWNED BY 39-30 SCORE

For the first time in several yellow moons the alumni unlimited basketball squad took a game from the Richmond Union high school unlimited varsity.

Such a startling thing happened last night when the strong alumni five took the equally strong high school quintet down the line by a score of 39 to 30 in a fast and furious game.

The only victory for the high school squad was the 130 pound game, which they took with ease by a score of 19 to 8.

In the curtain raiser, the alumni girls walked over Miss McLaurin's charges by a score of 21 to 11.

The high school gymnasium was packed by one of the largest crowds on record, filling the small place to an overflowing.

The sounds of the cheers, mingled with the loud blare of the Richmond Union high school band and the alumni band led by Walter Siegle, kept the vicinity of Twenty-second street and Macdonald avenue in an uproar.

All three games were marked with skill and speed and B. X. Tucker, principal of the school who has always placed his hopes on the alumni cagers went home satisfied for once.

The 130 pound team of the school proved too much for the alumni.

The school unlimited team used but one substitute throughout the game while the alumni used a number.

This game also proved a get-together meeting for the graduates and the students who lustily cheered their teams.

The lineup:
Unlimited Game
R. U. H. S.—De Baere, f. 8; Bowman, f. 7; Tittlemore, c. 4; Baldwin, sub-center, Hoskings, g. 9, and Swanson, f. 2.

ALUMNI—Cornell, g. Woods, sub-guard; 2; Lee, g. 2; Barberie, c. 11; Chatterton, sub-center, 11; Dyer, f. 9; Huzefka, f. 4.
130 Pound Game
R. U. H. S.—Mellin, f. 5; Hall, f. 4; Gordon, c. 5; Lane, sub-center, 5; McAllister and Williams, guards; Flynn and Arnold, subs.

ALUMNI—McLaughlin, g. Gauldon, sub-guard; Mallanni, g. 4; Clark, c. 1; Villalobos, f. 1; Bernes, f. Powl, f. 2.
Girls' Game
R. U. H. S.—Kathleen Smith, Lucille Muth, Edna Muth, Mildred Wollett, Opal Wilson, E. Wilson, Maxie Samples, Katherine Snodgrass, Catherine Wood, M. Wyatt, I. Osborne and Dorothy Van Pruyen.

FOUR BABIES BORN
The birth of four babies at the Richmond Maternity hospital was reported yesterday. The boys are the children of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wakeman, of Walnut Creek; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Smith, 120 Nevada avenue and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jones, 465 Eighth street. The girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Neff, of Crockett.

Junior Cagers Win Three Hard Fought Contests In Berkeley

Three out of the four basketball games played by the local junior high school weight teams were won on Thursday afternoon when Coach "Doc" Seawright took his charges to the Garfield Junior high school of Berkeley.

The 85 pounders won 3 to 2, the 100 pounders won 9 to 3, but the 110's lost 8 to 5. Denny Miner's 120's won by a score of 24 to 4.

FORD IS NOT RICHEST IN U. S. IS CLAIM

(By Universal Service)
By H. L. RAMSAY
WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Government experts today disputed the claim that Henry Ford is "The richest man in the world."

Palm to J. D. JR.
Without attempt to belittle Ford's almost fabulous wealth, they awarded the palm to John D. Rockefeller, Jr. They held that Young Rockefeller is "probably the only individual billionaire" in the world.

Men who make of statistics a science, capable of penetrating the secrets which rich men and the government guard jointly and jealously, cited these factors to support the Rockefeller claim.

The vast bulk of the immense fortune the elder Rockefeller seemingly conjured out of oil has on clearest evidence been transferred to his son. Federal and state inheritance taxes likely to total 25 to 50 percent when John D. Sr. dies, were a principal reason for this.

2. Rockefeller is a far older fortune, and one of the first of the world's great fortunes to be kept constantly growing through "scientific management," even though great philanthropies tended to reduce it.

Edsel Has Interest
The personal fortune of Henry Ford, accepted as the largest in the Ford family, would have to be reduced by the forty percent of the Ford wealth estimated to be vested in Edsel Ford.

Much of the $400,000,000 Ford bank balances, according to these experts, belongs to the Ford Motor company and at least part of this in all likelihood would go with the property in any "billion dollar sale."

At least a large part of the railroad, mine and other holdings likewise would go with that company, the experts contended, since they would be indispensable to the cheap and efficient operation which primarily gave the enterprise its enormous value.

On this basis belief was expressed that the Ford wealth would not exceed the younger Rockefellers even if Edsel's wealth were counted with that of Henry Ford.

Expert analysis of tax payments, although made independently of the treasury's official calculations because of the latter's requirement of secrecy, has indicated plainly that Rockefeller's wealth is the larger.

KNOCKOUTS ARE FEATURED AT EL CERRITO

Three knockouts were the signal feature of bouts held at the El Cerrito Athletic club last night. All of the fights were fast and furious and were attended by a conspicuous lack of clinching and stalling.

Eddie Dampier of San Jose secured a decision over Tim Vahey of San Francisco in the main event of eight rounds. This was a good clean fight from start to finish. Vahey showed class but Dampier was too fast for him.

Doc Limas of El Cerrito K. O'd Leo Ansuult of Vallejo in the second round. Frisco Lenda of San Francisco, got a decision over Joe De Maria of Albany in a fast, clever exhibition.

Saint Romero of San Diego, who was scheduled to fight Charlie Actis of Richmond showed up 12 pounds overweight. Cliff Hottenger, of El Cerrito, substituted and won by a knockout in the second round.

In the special event, Ray Walker of Oakland, obtained a decision over Mickey Brown of Richmond. Pete Meyers, of San Francisco, K. O'd Cyclone Pete of Oakland in the semi-windup in a fast exhibition of heavy boxing.

Will Enjoy a Happy New Year Blood Test Shows Negative

At the beginning of last summer my blood test showed two positives; that is two x's. It had previously been four x's (positives).

After I failed to get relief by treatments of hydropathic shots I decided to give the Fong Wan Herbs a trial. I drank the herbs for only one month. Nevertheless when I had a blood test taken again on Dec. 24, 1926 the test showed negative. So my blood is thoroughly cleansed and is O. K. at last. I shall certainly enjoy a Happy New Year. Because of my gratitude to the Fong Wan Herb Treatment, I am glad to give this testimonial.

VANDERBILT IS WAGING BATTLE TO PAY DEBTS

(By Universal Service)
NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Found washing breakfast dishes in his little two-room bachelor apartment on Fifth Avenue, where he is waging a battle against poverty, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., today confessed that the ambition of his life is to be a successful newspaper man.

"I would rather be a good reporter than a Ward McAllister," declared the young scion of one of New York's richest families, who recently retired from active journalism after losing $3,000,000 in newspaper ventures.

Writing Out of Debt
Young Vanderbilt hopes to write his way entirely out of debt, and it is for this purpose that he is cooking his own meals, washing his own dishes and spending long, weary hours over his typewriter.

He had just finished his breakfast when a reporter called today.

He doesn't count on any help whatever from his family in his "come-back."

Father Refuses Aid
"My father refuses to help me any more," he said. "He has informed me that everything is over—this after promising to defray certain expenses."

"I expect no further financial help from my family. I realize the need of paying those debts in the west and south, however, and I will pay them."

Separated From Wife
Vanderbilt said he was separated from his wife, formerly Miss Rachel Littleton. Reports of an estrangement have been current for some time, but this is the first time it had ever been confirmed by either.

"We have been separated for about three years," he said. "I believe it is certain we will never be reunited. There has been no decree, but I haven't seen her for eleven months and our last meeting was purely formal."

He also declared that he had recently been fitted with a new face in a skin grafting operation at Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore, from which he was released about a month ago.

"All of my face is new—just put on," he said, pinching both cheeks.

"I had eight-and-a-half inches of bone removed, eighteen teeth taken out and new skin put on."

He said grafting was necessitated by abscesses which developed from gas poisoning suffered when a "buck private" with the Twenty-seventh Division in France. He was gassed three times.

P. I. Independence Would Spell War Declares Savant

(By Universal Service)
OAKLAND, Feb. 4.—Philippine independence at this time would result in an international war in the Pacific, in which the United States would eventually be drawn, in the opinion of Professor R. G. Gettell of the University of California.

Professor Gettell discussed the Philippine question before the Oakland Forum club here today. Gettell declared that the Philippines are America's foothold in the Orient and that the only Philippines demanding independence are the politicians and that their motives in agitating separation from the United States are purely selfish.

Talk About Oil Shortage Scored by Govt. Expert

That there will be fuel for the family driver, at moderate prices, for many decades is the confident view of Harry H. Hill, chief petroleum engineer, United States Bureau of Mines. Interviewed by the New York Times, Mr. Hill said:

"It will be possible to obtain plenty of petroleum from drilled wells for many years to come and after the exhaustion of this supply coal and shales will meet all requirements, according to Harry H. Hill, Chief Petroleum Engineer of the United States Bureau of Mines."

Harry H. Hill, Chief of Petroleum Division, U. S. Bureau of Mines.

He sees no reason for worry over a possible shortage of motor fuel. "Most of the petroleum thus far has come from limited areas within the United States," Mr. Hill said. "Even from these, only a small part has been taken. Oil in pools, with gas pressure capable of lifting it, is but a little of all the oil. Even from the best pools recovery by the old methods is small—a half at best; often a sixth, a seventh or a tenth."

"But a considerable part of what remains can be recovered by methods now established as technically and economically practicable. These will be improved as occasion demands. Mining oil, and the production of it from coal and shales, is entirely possible. If we need to fall back on these resources, we are ready. But for a long time exploration, drilling and larger recoveries are likely to suffice."

Artificial Pressure Needed

Mr. Hill said that gas pressure lifts oil in wells, but that much is left sticking to the sands. Artificial restoration of pressure with gas, air or water, and the use of chemicals to wash the oil away from the sands, would greatly increase recoveries, he said. He explained that escaping gas carried off much of the oil, which formerly was lost but now is saved, and that great progress has been made in shutting out water and so increasing the recovery of oil.

"Early operators," Mr. Hill continued, "guarded information about their experiences, but latterly they co-operate. Our engineers get 'logs' of wells, from which helpful information is placed at the service of producers. Geologists and English oil men are becoming guides and inventors."

He then told how oil sands are mined in France by soaking the oil out of the sands by driving tunnels and from these pushing perforated pipes out to soak up the oil as a sponge would. Some companies are installing the process in this country, convinced it is practicable and profitable, he said.

"In Europe," he went on, "much is being done to distill oil from coal. But extracting it from shales is more appealing. Scotland has worked its shales for seventy-five years. We have vastly greater and richer deposits here. There is no doubt of the possibility of extraction; just a question of cost. Scotch shales are 'producing' twenty-five gallons per ton; we can get much more. Scotch seams are 3 1/2 to 10 feet thick; ours are many times that. Shale resources are so vast as to insure against deficiency in oil, once the price is high enough."

"But that may be a long time ahead. Ben E. Lindsey, of the Bureau's Station in Oklahoma, is sure that exploration, better recoveries, better utilization, deeper drilling, would furnish oil for 25 to 50 years. If it could all be taken out in that time. That will be impossible in actual operation. There will be shortages, when oil from shales will be needed to supplement that from the wells. Meanwhile, Federal and State Governments and the industry are co-operating in an astonishing range of investigations and studies, looking to larger recoveries, prevention of waste, protection against fire and the use of lower grade distillates."

Keyes Refuses Complaint for Arrest of Chaplin Holding That He Provides for Sons

(By Universal Service)
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 4.—After a conference today with Lloyd Wright, personal attorney for Charlie Chaplin, District attorney Asa Keyes refused to issue a complaint against the comedian charging him with failure to provide for his children, as requested yesterday by lawyers representing Mrs. Lita Grey Chaplin.

Keyes stated he was convinced that Chaplin, through his attorney, had made adequate provision for the support of his baby sons pending the trial of the divorce suit. He said:

"Mr. Wright has convinced me that he is making payments in behalf of Mr. Chaplin for the support of his children. Inasmuch as the children's needs are being cared for by the comedian, through his attorney, no complaint against Mr. Chaplin will be issued."

$200 Paid Lita
Attorneys Lyndol Young and Edwin T. McMurray, representing Mrs. Chaplin, admitted to the prosecutor that they had received three checks, totaling $200, from Wright since the separation of the couple on Nov. 30. The checks have not been cashed, they said, because they believed the money was sent by Wright, "out of the goodness of his heart," instead of by Chaplin.

But attorney Wright told Keyes that checks for $100 each were sent weekly to Mrs. Chaplin from his office.

Mrs. Chaplin and her attorneys refused to specify the amount needed and were sent two checks for $50 each, he explained. "This sum has been increased to $100 a week. None of the checks have been cashed, however."

To Answer 200 Questions
Wright was notified today to appear in superior court next Tuesday to show cause why he should not answer approximately 200 questions regarding the actor's business affairs prepared by Mrs. Chaplin's legal advisers. In case he persists in his refusal to answer the queries, if the court orders him to do so, contempt proceedings will follow, according to attorney ese waters be recalled and those on the way turned back, has been refused. The ships will remain within reach of Americans in China until a victorious army is able to establish a stable government and new protective treaties are actually negotiated, it was stated.

GOVERNMENT STABILIZATION NOT IN SIGHT

The most optimistic observers say this can not be within two months at the least, except in the event of an unexpected collapse of either the Northern or Cantonese armies. The Cantonese army, now marching on Shanghai cannot reach that city within three weeks and a victory there would still leave more than half of China to be conquered, it was pointed out.

It is in Shanghai that Americans, British and other foreigners are being concentrated for protection under the guns of the mightiest armada assembled anywhere since the world war.

Called Mistake
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4.—America is making a serious mistake in sending troops and battleships to China, according to Mrs. Eleanor Carlisle who returned to her home here today from an extended tour of China.

Mrs. Carlisle declared that red Russian communism is at the root of all the unrest in China today and that the Cantonese or Northern army is directed by Russians. "Chinese hatred for the British is intense," said Mrs. Carlisle. "The Chinese resent and hate the imperialistic attitude of the British."

British Cabinet Meets

LONDON, Feb. 4.—The British cabinet held another lengthy session this afternoon to review the Chinese situation.

It is understood the cabinet decided to ask Eugene Chen, Chinese Nationalist in charge of Foreign Affairs, what guarantees he will give for the protection of British life and property in China provided British troops en route to Shanghai are recalled.

Reports received here today of the war in China were conflicting. It is reported from Shanghai that General Chang Kai Shek, Cantonese leader, is marching from Hankow in the direction of Shanghai while General Sun Chuan Pang, defender of Shanghai is receiving reinforcements in preparation for a battle.

Other reports say that the situation is unchanged and that the Cantonese are consolidating their successes around Hankow. All reports, however, point to a union of the Northern Forces and there is doubt here in well informed circles that the Cantonese will make any serious attempt to occupy Shanghai.

SURPLUS WILL BE USED FOR NATIONS DEBT

to be the sense of the senate that any surplus in the treasury, arising from taxation, should be applied toward the payment of the national debt was adopted 46 to 33. On a vote to adopt the amendment resolution it carried 52 to 28.

The first vote was purely partisan. All Democrats except Senator Blaise of South Carolina opposed the Norris substitute. Senator Shipstead, farmer-laborite of Minnesota, also cast his lot with the Republicans.

Party Lines Split
While the Senate split on party lines on the adoption of the Harrison resolution, as amended, six Democrats suffered a change of heart and voted with the Republicans. They were Ashurst, Arizona; Bruce, Md.; Glass, Va.; Smith, S. C.; Walsh, and Wheeler, Montana. Blaise again voted with the Republicans and Bruce switched his vote before the roll-call was announced.

The Norris resolution, of course, has no binding effect upon the treasury, but it is the plan of Secretary Mellon to use the surplus, variously estimated between $300,000,000 and $500,000,000 to reduce the national debt and thereby cut the interest, a means of saving for all taxpayers.

FORMER SHOW BEAUTY DIES LONELY DEATH

By ROBERT J. PREW

LONDON, Feb. 4.—Pitifully pre-saging her end, Kay Laurel, beautiful former follies girl, died lonely death in the luxurious Hotel Carlton on Monday. She was known as Mrs. Leslie which accounts for the fact that although she died on Monday details only became known today when one of her friends returned to London from the continent and disclosed the circumstances to Universal Service.

Wife of Shekhan
Kay, who formerly was the wife of Winnie Shekhan of New York, was living alone at the Carlton. Her health recently had not been such as to cause her any anxiety but Monday morning she had a strange presentiment of death.

Hotel clerks say she frantically called on the telephone for a few friends she knew in London but by a cruel stroke of fate she failed to reach any of them. Doctors were called in after lunch but she died at four o'clock. A clot of blood in the heart was given as the cause of death.

Body Cremated
Yesterday she was cremated. Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Cochran, who had been friendly with her during her stay here attended the funeral and the Dolly sisters sent a wreath. Her urn is inscribed: "Mrs. Kay Laurel Leslie."

BENEFIT DANCE IS GIVEN AT EL CERRITO

Little Harold Mewha, aged five, is happy today—happy in spite of the fact that the bones in his left leg are knitting slowly. He lies in his cot at the Martinez hospital happy in the knowledge that all his doctor bills will be paid and that soon he will be out playing with his chums.

Last October Little Harold fell from his bicycle and broke his leg. The bones have refused to knit properly. Several times they were reset without much success but last month the case came to the attention of a physician at the Baby hospital in Oakland and the boy was removed there for treatment.

The final operation was successful and now the boy is slowly convalescing at the Martinez hospital.

Learning that the family of the boy is in straitened circumstances a group of El Cerrito citizens last night held a benefit dance in Huber hall and it was reported by the committee in charge, Trustee Phil A. Lee, Attorney William F. Huber and M. J. Hale, that the affair was a big success and enough money was realized to pay the cost of the operations and hospital bills.

Harold will soon be able to be out and playing with his chums.

Your City and Ours —The Same

In the modern theory of business, every transaction must be a fair exchange with mutual gain.

The operation of The Mechanics Bank, home-owned and home-managed, is in harmony with this idea because it seeks to grow with the community rather than to gain a profit out of proportion to the co-operation it can give.

Its officers and directors are Richmond men able and willing to work with you and for you at all times. They acknowledge a mutuality of interest centered in your community—and theirs.
